Adjunct faculty members are a vital part of the Virginia Highlands Community College (VHCC) team. This document is provided as a supplemental resource to highlight a portion of the extensive information available to all employees in the VHCC Academic Calendar, the VHCC Policy and Procedure Manual, and the VHCC Catalog and Student Handbook. Each adjunct faculty member should familiarize himself or herself with the full details of these important documents prior to and during service at VHCC.

Academic Calendar

The Academic Calendar is available on the VHCC Website and provides vital details relevant to academic success. It is important that each adjunct faculty member familiarize himself or herself with it and observe its guidelines. Specifically, each semester session has a “Last day to pay tuition or receive a refund.” This is the census date also known as the 15% date, also known as a “drop.” This date is vitally important as faculty are required to identify students who have “never attended” to the admissions office by this date. Currently, faculty are to use Navigate to identify students who have “never attended” on or before the posted 15% date for any specific session. Complete directions for doing so can be found in emails sent from student services prior to deadlines and from the division office.

Also, each semester session has a “Last day to withdraw from class without academic penalty.” This is the withdrawal date or the 60% date. Rules for student-initiated withdrawals and faculty-initiated withdrawals can be found in the VHCC Catalog and Student Handbook.

It is important to reference these two important academic calendar dates in syllabi and remind students of their significance as they approach.

Academic Freedom and Responsibility

VHCC Policy 3.6.5 states the following:

To ensure an instructional program marked by excellence, the College supports the concept of academic freedom. In the development of knowledge, research endeavors, and creative activities, College faculty and students must be free to cultivate a spirit of inquiry and scholarly criticism.

Faculty members are entitled to freedom in the classroom in discussing their subjects, but should be careful not to introduce teaching matters which have no relation to their fields. Faculty and students must be able to examine ideas in an atmosphere of freedom and confidence and to participate as responsible citizens in community affairs.

The College also recognizes that commitment to every freedom carries with it attendant responsibilities. Faculty members must fulfill their responsibilities to society and to their profession by manifesting academic competence, professional discretion, and good citizenship. When they speak or write as citizens, they will be free from institutional censorship or discipline, but their special position in the community imposes special obligations. As professional educators, they must remember that the public may judge their profession and their institution by their utterances. Hence, they should at all times be accurate, exercise appropriate restraint, show respect for the opinions of others, and make every effort to indicate that they are not an institutional spokesman.

Academic Support Services

Virginia Highlands Community College has many services available to support the academic success of students. Just a few of those resources are listed as follows:

Karen Copenhaver, the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) Coordinator, is located in the Instructional Student Center (ISC 124). She can be reached by email at kcopenhaver@vhcc.edu. If a student qualifies for ADA accommodations, the professor will be notified of the student's accommodations in writing by Ms. Copenhaver.
- Excel Center is located in the Instructional Student Center (ISC 122). This center is specifically equipped to support the academic success of students who are eligible to participate in its services. In order to participate in Excel, students at VHCC must demonstrate an academic need for services and meet at least one of the following eligibility criteria:
 - Be a first-generation college student. This means that neither parent earned a four-year college degree.
 - Be classified as low income. To qualify, annual taxable income must not exceed 150% of the poverty level as defined by the U.S. Department of Education.
 - Have a documented physical or learning disability.
 - Students who qualify for the program receive free tutoring, counseling, mentoring and transfer counseling. See Excel Services for more details.
- Great Expectations (GE) at VHCC reaches out to foster care students who are taking classes at VHCC. The program is setup to help meet students' educational needs with the ultimate goal of achieving a career. The GE students at VHCC are monitored closely by the GE Coach, Deb Ledford, who meets with the students individually each week and stays in contact with their professors for academic accountability purposes. Deb Ledford is located in the Instructional Student Center (ISC 100C). She can be contacted by phone at 276-739-2434 or by email at dledford@vhcc.edu
- LearningPLUS+ is the Quality Enhancement Plan for VHCC. At VHCC, we are committed to LearningPLUS+ because we are committed to student success and the needs of our communities. LearningPLUS+ is VHCC's way of ensuring our graduates have the skills they need to be successful in life and in the workplace. Adjunct faculty are actively involved in this important initiative and can contact Ken Fairbanks, Director, at 276-739-2462 or kfairbanks@vhcc.edu

- Moose Academic Resource Center (MARC) is located in the Learning Resource Center (LRC) room 133 near the Library and Testing Center. The MARC is the support center for the VHCC Required Remediation initiative. Effective Spring 2019, all students taking ENG 111 and ENG 112 are required to participate in remediation as needed. Beginning Fall 2019, all math students will be required to participate in remediation as needed. Moving forward, biology students will be included in this student success plan as well. More details on this initiative can be obtained by discussing it with the lead faculty, division dean, or assistant dean. Additionally, Julianna Jones, director of the MARC, can assist faculty with making referrals to the MARC and can be contacted by phone at 276-739-2583 or by email at jjones1@vhcc.edu

Adjunct Appointment

Each adjunct appointment is made in accordance with VHCC and VCCS policy and is assigned on a semester-by-semester basis by the designated division dean. Additionally, Laura McClellan, Human Resource Manager, supports adjunct faculty with the on-boarding process. She can be reached by phone at 276-739-2425 or by email at lmcclellan@vhcc.edu. A complete and official personnel file must be maintained on all adjunct faculty in order to comply with the policies of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACSCOC). A portion of this on-boarding process is completed in person by meeting with the division deans, office managers, and HR manager. The remaining steps are completed online through Silkroad. Faculty will not be placed on the payroll and checks will not be issued until all information has been provided. Please check to ensure all forms have been submitted and all blanks have been completed. It is the responsibility of each adjunct employee to provide the following information:

- State application with an original signature and date
- Name and contact information for three current references
- Official transcripts for all colleges attended
- Employee's Withholding Allowance Certificate (W-4)
- Employee's Virginia Income Tax Withholding Exemption Certificate (VA-4)
- Employment Eligibility Verification Form (I-9)
- Alcohol and Drug Policy Form
- Child Support Enforcement Form
- Notification and Release Form
- Employee Direct Deposit Authorization Form
- Employment Certification and Notice of Part-time Hours Forms
- Copy of Social Security Card (for payroll purposes only)
- IT Computer Access Request Form (CARF)
- Request for New or Changed Access Key Card

Adjunct Teaching Load

The normal teaching load for an adjunct faculty member shall be no more than 12 credit hours each fall or spring semester and no more than 8 credit hours during the summer semester. Additionally, the adjunct faculty member will be available to advise students and provide individual instruction as needed.

Adjunct office space is available in OTC 229 and LRC 206. For contact information, the adjunct office phone number can be listed as the division office phone number if desired. The VHCC email should be the primary contact. The VHCC email account should be checked on a daily basis to ensure efficient communication.

Adjunct Pay Schedule

Each adjunct faculty member will be paid by direct deposit. Jessie O'Quinn is the primary contact for all payroll questions. She can be reached by phone at 276-739-2420 and by email at joquinn1@vhcc.edu. All contractual instruction responsibilities must be completed by the established deadline in order for an adjunct to be added to the payroll. Pay schedules can be found on a semester by semester basis on the VHCC website.

Canvas

Online Learning at VHCC is made possible through the Canvas Learning Management System (LMS). Ken Fairbanks, Director of Distance and Distributed Learning, is available to support adjunct faculty with all Canvas training opportunities.

Catalog and Student Handbook

The VHCC Catalog and Student Handbook is a vital reference tool with which each adjunct should be familiar. It contains details relevant to admissions practices, academic policies, and student services.

Course Records

Each semester adjunct faculty members must submit the following items to the office manager:

- Course syllabus filed on or before the first day of class
- Comprehensive final exam or all major tests if a comprehensive final exam is not given to be filed before the final faculty research/workday of the semester

Exams

Classes should be held every scheduled day throughout the entire semester and through the last day of class. Regular classes do not meet during the final exam week. Instead, an exam week schedule is followed and can be accessed on the VHCC Website or by request of the division office manager. The scheduled exam period must occur at the time scheduled on the official exam schedule.

Field Trips

Experiential learning is encouraged at VHCC, especially as part of the LearningPLUS+ initiative. When planning and implementing experiential learning opportunities, discuss all off-campus events with the division dean well in advance. All students must complete an Assumption of Risk form prior to participating in a VHCC sponsored off-campus event. Please see the division office manager or division dean to obtain the forms.

General Safety Policies

Procedures for handling emergency situations are detailed in a hard copy document that will be given to each adjunct at the beginning of his or her service. When an additional hard copy is needed, please obtain it from the division office manager.

All VHCC classrooms have a teacher podium with a phone system that also operates as a loud speaker in the case of emergencies. Depending on the seriousness of the event, contact 911 or Campus Police for assistance when necessary. If a person is accidentally injured under the supervision of the adjunct, an Incident Report must be completed. Contact Campus Police with any specific safety concerns as follows:

- Location – ISC 150
- Cell – 276-614-8282
- Office – 276-739-2448

Additionally, a general safety concern can arise when students bring children to class. Classrooms are not designed for the safety or care of children, and the presence of children in the classroom may be disruptive to the academic environment. For guidance on this topic, adjuncts should discuss any questions regarding children in the classroom with the division deans.

IOTA Course Evaluation

VHCC uses the IOTA online course evaluation system to receive feedback from students for improving courses. Evaluations are available to students who remain enrolled after the last day to withdraw (60% date). Online evaluations will open and close when the course is approximately 85% and 95% complete, respectively. If the course is less than 4 weeks in length, paper forms of student evaluation are used. To access the evaluation, students will be provided a link via their college email address. Each semester after grades are submitted, faculty are provided access to review the student evaluations. Faculty are encouraged to review the student evaluation reports. Additionally, assistant deans and/or deans review the student evaluations each semester.

Keys

Adjunct faculty are issued an employee ID card. This card acts as a key to allow the adjunct faculty member to enter buildings and areas as authorized. When necessary, classroom and lab keys may be assigned to adjunct faculty.

Mail

Individual mailboxes are provided for all adjunct faculty in the mailrooms located in each division office. Each adjunct faculty member is also provided an electronic mail (email) address to be used for all official college communication. All faculty and staff are expected to pick up physical mail upon each campus visit and check email daily to ensure efficient communication.

MyVHCC

MyVHCC allows access to student information, real-time course roster information, the Canvas Learning Management system, Navigate, and other vital resources for adjunct faculty.

Navigate

VHCC is utilizing the new Navigate system to make the process of reporting the academic progress of our students as easy and efficient as possible. This report will occur each semester prior to or on the census date (15%). Through a Progress Report, faculty have a quick way to inform us of students' progress in class. Faculty responses will help us know which students to reach out to and offer help.

To complete the Progress Report for students who have never attended, please follow these instructions:

- Login into MyVHCC account, click on Navigate Campus
- Change the setting from “(staff)” to “(professor)”
- Click on the “Classes this Term” tab
- Find the course and click on “Progress Reports”
- Choose the students who have never attended by clicking the box next to their name
- Click on “Actions” “Create a New Progress Report” at the top
- Complete the report. Absences can be left blank, Grade can be set to N/A.
- Click “Submit Report”

Observation Schedules

Classroom observations and distance education course evaluations are conducted by division deans, assistant deans, or lead faculty on a regular basis as follows:

- One time during the first semester of adjunct teaching
- One time during the second semester of adjunct teaching
- One time during the next academic year
- One time during the academic year every second year thereafter

Most often, faculty are informed in advance of a scheduled classroom observation. Additionally, deans, assistant deans, or lead faculty may visit the classroom to observe instruction without notice.

Policy and Procedures Manual

The VHCC Policy and Procedures Manual is a vital resource with which each adjunct faculty member should be familiar. It contains relevant information pertaining to administrative regulations, educational programs, and personnel matters.

Security Awareness Training

All VHCC employees are required to complete security awareness training on a regular and scheduled basis. Failure to complete training as scheduled results in loss of access to VHCC email and MyVHCC accounts. Leigh Anne Dunn, the Information Security Officer, can be contacted by phone at 276-739-2433 and by email at ldunn@vhcc.edu.

Student Conduct

Student conduct policies and procedures are defined in the College and Student Handbook and on the VHCC Website at the link provided. Communicate with the division dean right away when assistance is needed to resolve a student conduct concern.

Student Services Forms

Student Services Forms can be accessed at the link provided and found on the VHCC Website at Current Students, Students Services, Student Services Forms. This link provides access to the Drop/Add form and the Petition to Repeat a Course form as well as other forms an adjunct may need to access while working with students. Additional forms, such as a Change of Grade form, may be obtained in the division offices or by electronic request of the division office manager.

Syllabi

Adjunct faculty are required to use the VHCC Syllabus Template and a common course syllabus provided by the lead faculty for the discipline. All course syllabi must be uploaded in the z-drive course record folder prior to the first day of class. Faculty must be on campus to access the z-drive, so the syllabi may be sent to the division office manager prior to the first day of classes to be uploaded to the z-drive.

Testing Center

The VHCC Testing Center offers individualized testing services to meet the needs of faculty, students, and the community. The Testing Center is located in the Library (LRC 121) on the lower level of the LRC Building. Reva Russell is the Testing Center Specialist and can be reached at 276-739-2475. Her email address is rrussell@vhcc.edu. Additionally, the center can be contacted at 276-739-2476 and TestingCenter@vhcc.edu
