

Office of Financial Aid

In response to legislation enacted by U.S. Congress, the FAFSA is getting its first major overhaul in 40 years with the intent of streamlining the application process and making it easier for students to complete it.

Opening FAFSA date for the 2024-2025 FAFSA will be delayed until December 2023!

The Positive Change:

Increased Pell Grant eligibility

Reduction in verification

FSA IDs for those without SSN

Number of application questions reduced

Simplification brings benefits:

To make the transition to the Better FAFSA as smooth as possible, this is a great time to get informed about all the changes.

The National College Attainment Network's Better FAFSA is a one-stop-shop for all things Better FAFSA and is updated regularly. Bookmark and stay tuned to this page so you don't miss any updates.